5th July 1918

My dear Sir,

Mr Venkatachinnaya has agreed to publish an apology in the matter you desired to. I shall be obliged if you will kindly send me copies of the offending articles with a draft apology duly approved by the Bishop the Governor.

I met & discussed with Messrs Newham & Reddy the difficulties in connection with the Maharajah's School. I am trying to see if all these troubles could be ended. I am somewhat handicapped in this endeavor by reason of certain laudatory articles which occasionally appear about Mr Darby in the local papers. I will try all the same.

Yours sincerely,
H. Simmons
